

HOW MUCH DO PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANIES

SPEND ON YOUR DOCTORS?

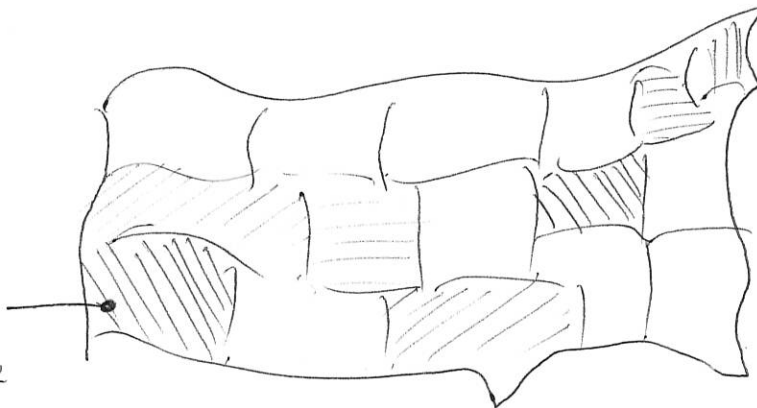

The Sunshine Act (passed in 2003) mandates certain pharmaceutical, medical device, bio. product & medical supply companies to report payments & other transfers of value provided to covered recipients.

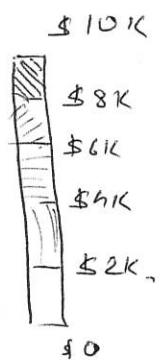

Based on data published in 2017, companies spent $ 2.84 Billion on doctors.

Doctors in California received the highest payments on average

National Mean: $ 3307.46

Example doctor: CHARLES GOODIS
(ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO)

Received: $22.9 M in payments

Royalty
$50K

Non-speaker payment

$22.8 M

Search for payments on your doctor: HERE

Information about the dataset: HERE

References: ==